GAME NOTES:

Boston Connection: Five Boston Bruins draft picks are rostered for BCt. James Hagens was selected seventh overall in the 2025 NHL Draft. William Moore was taken 51st overall in the 2025 NHL Draft. Andre Gasseau: Drafted by the Bruins in 2021. Oskar Jellvik: Also drafted by the Bruins in 2021. Dean Letourneau: Drafted by the Bruins in 2024.

Latvia To Troy Pipeline: Former Assistant Coach Karlis Zirnis had recruited players he coached as part of the Latvian National Program. Riga, Latvia: Capital of Latvia, set on the Baltic Sea. There are 591,0000 inhabitants. It is known for its wooden buildings and architecture. Rainers Ruellers, Arvils Bergmanis, and Bruno Bruveris are all from Riga. Zirnis was the assistant coach of RPI from 2023 to 2025. His role as the Latvian National Coach (2012- Present) has helped the program recruit these players.

He is now an assistant coach at Mercyhurst.

“The Field House” Interview with Lang:

“Coach Lang said to us in our interview last week that the program wants to be “experts” in the OHL and QMJHL and truly establish a pipeline from the Canadian Major Junior leagues.” -The Field House

Taking The Jump: With the departures of Gabriel Perreault, Ryan Leonard, Miek Richter Award winner Jacob Fowler, and Hockey East Defender of the Year Eamon Powell, younger players have the opportunity to take the mantle. The team is expected to earn the right to compete in the field of 16 in the NCAA Tournament.

James Hagens: Hagens posted exactly a point per game last season (37 in 37), was named to the Hockey East All-Rookie Team, and scored the program's game-winning goal against Bentley in the NCAA Tournament First Round.

Third Period Threat: BC outscored opponents 50-16 in third periods in 2024-25.

NHL Representation: 30 Active NHL Players are graduates of Boston College. Sixteen skaters were on opening night rosters for 2025-26.
