Mugno Film Announced the premiere of The Historic Hillsdale Hawks on August 22, 2024. Directed by Matthew Mugno, this sports documentary blends the history of Hillsdale, New Jersey with the unprecedented run of its 14U Junior League World Series team.

Hillsdale, NJ August 9, 2024, Mugno Film LLC Presents The Historic Hillsdale Hawks: A Documentary Premiering August 22, 2024.

Mugno Film LLC is pleased to announce its latest independent film, The Historic Hillsdale Hawks, set to premiere on August 22. The highly anticipated sports documentary, directed by Matthew Mugno, digs into the Hillsdale Hawk's unprecedented Junior League World Series run and its place in town history.

Interviews with team manager Chris Kirkby, Junior World Series players Joseph Luciano, Drew Kirkby, Ethan Rettew, and JLWS tournament play-by-play broadcaster Sam Ravech, illustrate the club's legacy run to the National Final.

The feature also explores how America's greatest pastime is tethered to the town's history. Police chief Sean Smith offers never-before-seen photographs of Hillsdale's Athletic Club Field, where the 1928 New York Yankees once practiced in front of grandstands of fans. This documentary explores the dynamic between past success and the latest volume of baseball lore in Hillsdale. It appreciates the past and admires what the small town has become.

Interviews with Joan Luciano, Jeremy Luciano, and town councilman Anthony DeRosa provide heart and recognize that even in trying times a community can rally behind athletic phenomena.

Mugno Film LLC invites audiences to mark their calendars for August 22, 2024, to experience this community-based sports documentary.
